COMMUNITY...CREATIVITY...AND FOOD

Join us for a celebration of MEND, a new journal that celebrates the lives and creative work of justice-impacted people. The event will feature reading and recognitions of this year's cohort.

Project Mend is made possible through collaboration with the Center for Community Alternatives and funding from an HNY Post-Incarceration Humanities Partnership, which is generously supported by the Mellon Foundation. Also, the project has been supported at Syracuse University by the Engaged Humanities Network, the Humanities Center, the SOURCE, the Department of Writing Studies, Rhetoric, and Composition, and a CUSE Research Grant. For accessibility accommodations, please contact Patrick W. Berry at pwberry@syr.edu by July 16.
