

An NSF Eddie Bernice Johnson INCLUDES Alliance

Dear Kerry,

These STEM-OPS "News Bites" have been created to keep you informed of discrete happenings between newsletters. The next full newsletter will be sent in Feb 2024.

On February 17th and March 2nd, the Vanderbilt University Initiative for Race Research and Justice will host day-long trainings on Restorative Practices. If you, or anyone in your network, is looking for an opportunity to receive professional training on what Restorative Practices are and ways Restorative Practices can be integrated into your work, please consider attending one of these workshops.

You need only attend ONE of the workshops. And, as a bonus, the training includes an IIRP certification!

The cost of the training is $250 before February 7th and $300 thereafter. IIRP typically charges significantly more for certification, so this is a GREAT deal!

For event details, click here.

Hope to see you there.

Presented by the Vanderbilt Initiative for Race Research and Justice

INITIATIVE FOR RACE RESEARCH
AND JUSTICE

RESTORATIVE weekend

February 17 & March 2

RESTORATIVE PRACTICES TRAINING & CERTIFICATION

are you →

- new to Restorative Practices or hoping to deepen your understanding?
- passionate about building community & solving problems?
- interested in connecting with Vanderbilt professors and like-minded educators from around the U.S.?

then join RRJ's Restorative Weekend!

February 17 & March 2
9a.m.-3:30p.m.

Early Registration
$250 $200 cheaper than
After February 7: $300 IIRP

Join from anywhere!
Virtual (Zoom)

Includes official International Institute of Restorative Practices training certificate

Presented In Coordination With

VANDERBILT
Peabody College

International Institute for Restorative Practices

SCAN
ME

Join us - Register Today!

Join the STEM-OPS Community!

Visit the STEM-OPS Website

Share:

Powered by Glue Up

All-in-one CRM Software for Growing Communities